Snowball Fight [Create Your Own Story]

Choose from the words in brackets or come up with your own to complete your very own Christmas story!

It was a cold December day and the most magical thing happened – it started to snow!

The snow came down fast and soon _____ [the streets were covered in a blanket of snow, even the grass turned white, fluffy snow landed everywhere]

Children everywhere were looking out their window _____ [in anticipation, with joy, with excitement]

Quickly they all rushed to get wrapped up. They grabbed their _____ as they ran out the door into the snow. [big coats, woollen hats, fluffy gloves]

Snowflakes fell down, dancing in front of the children and landing in their hair. It was _____ [beautiful, magnificent, stunning]

Everyone was enjoying the snow. All around children were _____ [building snowmen, sledging, making snow angels]

Suddenly a ball of snow flew through the air hitting someone and _____ [causing them to start laughing, explode in a powdery puff of whiteness, caused everyone to become silent]

It only took a second before retaliation started. Snowballs were being thrown everywhere, mini snow explosions hitting everyone.

One child _____ [had hidden and created over 20 snowballs, had created a snow fort, hid behind their sister].

When they were ready to strike they jumped out and threw their snowballs. Disaster struck! All the children watched as a snowball travelled in slow motion towards _____ [the local headmaster, the local vicar, an elderly grandma]

Bang! The snowball hit them on the back of the head! All the children froze for a moment, some _____ [ran back home, averted their gaze, pointed at the person who had thrown the snow ball]

Everyone was very worried until the adult they hit slowly bent down and formed a snow ball with their hands. Soon snow came flying back through the air the direction it had come from.

Laughter filled the air again and the snowball fight resumed. It continued for hours until everyone went home _____ [full of joy, soggy from snow, ready for food]
